The Bank of Belen was named one of the 500 largest Hispanic-owned companies in the U.S by Hispanic Business magazine in the June 2005 issue, the bank announced Thursday.

The bank placed 408th on the annual Hispanic Business 500 list, which ranks companies based upon revenue growth. The magazine, which publishes monthly, also identified 25 other businesses in New Mexico among its top 500 listing.

The three highest ranked New Mexico firms on the magazine's list were: Manuel Lujan Insurance Inc., of Albuquerque, which ranked 53rd; Desert Sun Motors Inc. of Alamogordo, at 86th; and Roses Southwest Papers Inc. of Albuquerque, which earned the 91st spot on the list of 500 businesses.

Bank of Belen was founded in 1992 and posted 2004 revenues of $8.25 million.
